As the weather is getting cool, some of our wood subscribers will please bring us in a few loads.

NEW MEAT MARKET.

Four and a half pounds of coffee for $1.00 at the Pickens corner. JOHN T. ROGERS, Clerk.

I went over to J. W. STEED & Co's. to-day and don't you think he sold a fellow a Hat for 50 cts. and a pair of Shoes for $1.00—Good Lord, how cheap!!!

All parties that are indebted to me are hereby notified to come forward at once and settle their accounts. J. M. CASH.

Sixty Men Wanted.

Wanted at Ore Knob Mines, sixty men to bore by the inch, on stopes. Pay 24 cts per inch. All Mine cost furnished free of charge. Board $10 per month. Railroad station, Marion, Va. 45 miles to mine. Cash advanced to men of family between pay days—none but sober men need apply. JAS. E. CLAYTON, Agent.

A gentleman from over in Meigs informs us that they can't stand Porter and the dog law all at once in that county. No wonder—such a mixture is enough to turn any man's stomach—even a Democrat's.

MARRIED.—At Dalton, Ga., on Sept. 20th, 1876, Mr. Luther D. Campbell, of this city, to Miss Maggie Lowry, of the former. The young couple arrived in this city on Wednesday night. They have our best wishes for a long and happy life.

Rev. J. B. Ford preached at the M. E. Church on Sunday night to an immense congregation—it being announced as his last sermon as presiding Elder at this place. He has, however, consented to preach again in that church next Sabbath week, Oct. 1st, in the morning.

Somebody is hurting. That is we judge by the way a young lawyer in this city is writing letters to the papers over the State, explaining how Col. Edwards "beat up" Foote in Cleveland.

Mr. Henry Hoss, secretary of the Washington county Fair, has our thanks for a complimentary ticket to the same. We attended the Fair at that place last year, and can say it was by far the best we have ever visited in East Tennessee. Of course this year's will be an improvement on last.

The great issue in politics now in this end of the State is the "Dog Law." Any man who favors that law in this end of the State can't be elected. It will injure Gov. Porter two hundred votes in this county, as well as every man that has endorsed him. Roll on your "dogs."

A prominent Polk county Democrat remarked that the nomination of Hancock was equivalent to the election of Dowell. "Rah for Squire!"

Mr. Jos. H. Taylor showed us a few days ago, a beet of his own raising that weighed 6 pounds and 10 ounces, and was twenty-three inches long. Jo. is none of your "dead beats" if he does raise big beets.

A good old country man who was opposed to the nomination of Hancock, last Saturday, said he would like to know who and whether there were any authorized delegates at that convention. There was no "roll call," or any credentials shown as anybody ever heard of.

We notice in the Chattanooga Commercial the opening of the canvass by Gen. Dibrell and Geo. Drake at Sulphur Springs. They both made good speeches. They both are gentlemen, and have characters of being honest men. We would publish their speeches but space will not admit. Mr. Drake is much the best speaker, and is making things lively for the General. They speak in this place Tuesday next.

Victory for the Young Boys.

The following Base Ball Club has been formed and named in honor of this paper—HERALD BASE BALL CLUB. The members are young boys, of sweet fifteen mostly, as follows: Capt. Fred Rogers, Horace Tipton, Ignatius Hix, Crawford Cash, Charley Carter, Ben Taylor, Charley Taylor, Willie Ford, Willie Gray, Stonewall Rogers.

Five of the Plug Uglies played the Herald's last Friday. Result—Heralds, 10 tallies—Plug Uglies, 4 tallies. The Herald's white washed them three times in succession. The funny part of it was, the Plug Uglies said the "little fellows" couldn't interest them; then to think of the little fellows white-washing them. Three cheers for the youngsters!

Don't fail to hear Dibrell and Drake speak here next Tuesday. Drake is a fine speaker and a clever man—one that the Republican party may be proud of. Let everybody come and hear them, and Drake is all right for election.

In this issue will be found a card of the Knoxville Soap Co. This is a home enterprise and should receive a liberal patronage of our merchants throughout Tennessee and adjoining States. Hogs dying with the cholera can be rendered up and sold to them with a large saving to the country.

Last week we made a proposition for each one of our subscribers to send us at least one new name. Eleven of them have responded with a name each. Will the others do the same? Ask your neighbor to subscribe and quit borrowing.

The old and oft repeated story comes again from South Carolina. "Another outbreak of the negroes—the whites fleeing for their lives." But it ends as usual—seven negroes killed and one white man wounded. It does look curious that the negro raises the row, then gets killed. Of course those law-abiding whites are not at fault.

Gen. Dibrell is charging in his speeches that Mrs. Grant received $25,000 of stolen money. That is a nice out for the General, after smelling around the Grant kitchen for nine long months to find something rotten, and failed, and now come here telling intelligent people such stories. He must think the people here are fools. Heretofore we had always thought Mr. Dibrell a fair-minded man.

Prof. Ford, of Flint Springs Academy was in town Saturday looking sound and healthy. He reports his school prospering—whole number of students enrolled, 125; regular attendants 110. These figures speak well for Mr. Ford and his assistant, Miss Igon.

Mr. Will Sloan, of this place, is making his vineyard in Polk county pay him right well. He will make several barrels of wine from it this year. William knows how to "do it up brown," when it comes to making wine. He has now in his store several samples of his own make, which is as nice as we have seen anywhere.

Foot and James at Chattanooga.

A prominent Democrat of this place went to Chattanooga to hear "James eat Foote up." He returned the next day and a Herald reporter interviewed him. The following is the result: Reporter.—Mr. M., how did Foote and James make it at Chattanooga?

Mr. M.—Well, tolerably. Rep.—I suppose, of course, James skinned Foote alive?

Mr. M.—Well, I was so far off I couldn't hear.

Rep.—I suppose James, of course, carried the crowd and made them laugh considerably.

Mr. M.—Well, you know James talks very slow, and the truth is I couldn't hear him.

Rep.—What do you think about it, anyhow?

Mr. M.—Well, I left early. Thus ended the interview. Of course James "skinned" Foote—like he was skinned in Cleveland.

Ten Candles for twenty-five cents at the Pickens corner or twenty cts. per pound cheaper than oil and a great deal safer.

JOHN T. ROGERS, Clerk.

The election for State officers in Indiana, and for Congressmen in Ohio, comes off next month. It is admitted by all fair-minded calculators that if the Republicans carry these two States then, there will be no chance for Tilden. And on the other hand, if the Democrats carry them there will be no chance for Hayes. If the Democrats should carry either one, then there is some hope for Tilden. From what we can gather from our exchanges New York is more apt to be carried by the Republicans than Indiana is. However, Indiana is not lost yet.

Will Governor Hayes inform his friends whether he has at all times paid the full amount due from him to the Government for income tax?—Sweetwater Enterprise.

He has just done that very thing. Now how nice it would be if Tilden could only clear up his record about "income tax."

The Democratic Convention.

M. H. Hancock, of Polk, to lead the "Squire William."

The Democratic Convention to nominate a candidate for joint Representative of Bradley and Polk counties met in this city last Saturday. At 1 o'clock the grand mogul of the party rang the court house bell as a signal for the gathering of the untried. Delegates could be seen slipping slyly as if ashamed to be seen.

Boss McKamy called the convention to order and stated the object of the gathering.

On motion of Grand Mogul McNelly, Squire John McPherson of the bloody ninth was made permanent chairman. Squire John then stepped upon the stand and remarked that there were men in the house that could fill the chair much better than himself—some fellow remarked that it would take the biggest chair in the house to hold him.

McNelly—I move J. W. Hicks, the Mexican veteran, be appointed secretary.

McKamy—I second the motion. Chairman—Gentlemen, you hear the motion; all in favor of it say "I."

They said "I"—radicals and all. McNelly—I move we adopt the two-thirds rule.

McKamy—I second the motion. The rule was then adopted, which included also a motion to allow Bradley and Polk 6 votes each.

Hardwick—Mr. Chairman, I put in nomination Mr. M. H. Hancock, of Polk county.

McKamy—(Thinking the tail was getting before the horse), I would like to know who are delegates here before we vote.

McNelly—I move every delegate be allowed to cast the vote of his county.

McKamy—I second the motion. The question was then put and the motion carried.

Hardwick—I move the nomination of Mr. Hancock be made by acclamation.

Chairman—All in favor of that rise to your feet.

They all rose.

Chairman—Gentlemen, I shall have to declare Hancock regularly nominated for Bradley and Polk.

Hardwick—I move we adjourn sine die.

Chairman—The convention will then adjourn sine die.

They all stepped out as slyly as possible. So ended the Hardwick-McKamy-McNelly convention.

Nine pounds Brown Sugar for $1.00 at the Pickens corner.

JOHN T. ROGERS, Clerk.

Yellow Fever.

The reports from New York and Baltimore say that the yellow fever is raging in those two places. The average deaths per day in Savannah is about 25, and still increasing. In different cities steps are being taken to render the Savannah sufferers relief. The dispatches from Washington say orders have been issued to disinfect all navy vessels on the North Atlantic Station and to keep them isolated from merchantmen.

Messrs. James & Pettibone, Electors for the State-at-Large, have left Cleveland and Ooltewah out of their appointments to speak. However, Mr. James passed up the road on Monday to meet Pettibone, and said they would try and speak at these two places before the election. We hope they will come here by all means—not that either are likely to change or make any votes, but then the "boys" want to "holler" you know.

The Democracy and Yardley.

The Knoxville Chronicle says: We take it that the more respectable portion of Tennessee Democracy, and especially of Knoxville Democracy, are disgusted with the means used to bring Yardley out as a candidate for Governor. No intelligent man, who knows Yardley, doubts that he was brought out by the use of money. The idea of bringing out a candidate for the high office of Governor through the contribution of money and the presentation of a suit of pawnbroker's clothing, is so supremely contemptible that no high-minded gentleman can look upon it with the least degree of alliance. If any one doubts that Yardley did receive cheap clothing from a Knoxville Democrat, let him deny it and call upon us for names. There are men in Knoxville who vote the Democratic ticket who would look with scorn and contempt upon such proceedings, and they ought to speak out in condemnation of such men.

More Reform.

Mr. J. B. Sharp, a merchant at White Pine, Tennessee, says that a bottle of Hart's Antibilious Discovery which he sold to a customer and friend of his performed so thoroughly and marked a cure that the demand for that remedy is something remarkable. That whole section is becoming reform by the use of H. A. D.

The Political Outlook.

A special to the Chicago Inter-Ocean from Washington on the 15th says:

Secretary Chandler returned here to day, and is very jubilant over the political outlook, and says that the reports received by the National Committee from Ohio and Indiana are such as to leave no doubt in his mind that both States will be carried in October by the Republicans. From now until the day of election the National Committee propose to make the campaign red-hot for the Democrats. Within ten days both States will be filled with able speakers—men like Ingersoll, Blaine, Hale, Frye, Kasson, Woodford, and General Banks. In alluding to the Democratic "roorback" that Schurz had been withdrawn from the canvass, and that he was dissatisfied with the speeches, Mr. Chandler said it was all "bosh"; that the relations between himself and Mr. Schurz were most cordial and nothing had occurred to interrupt them. After the October elections, the National Committee has arranged to send a Union brigade, consisting of twelve strong speakers, all of them ex-Major Generals in the Union army, into the Southern States, to speak until the Presidential election. Mr. Chandler believes that with an effective canvass six Southern States can be carried for Hayes and Wheeler, and such a canvass will be made. Generals Banks and Stewart L. Woodford will be among the twelve who have agreed to go.

Tilden From a Democratic Stand Point.

Here is what the Cincinnati Enquirer, the leading Democratic paper of the Northwest thinks of Tilden. Read, and then consider before you vote:

From the Enquirer. The real working, experienced Democrats in New York State have no love for Tilden. They know the selfish, scheming old shark, and they can't be induced to take stock in him.

From the Enquirer, May 13. The Enquirer is opposed to all shams. It is opposed to all corruption. It would be untrue to itself if it did not show up the former and expose the latter.

From the Enquirer, May 28. The Louisville organ of Sam. Tilden yesterday published a column of complimentary notices of the great New York Reformer, gleaned from Southern exchanges.

The advertising agency of Bates & Locke, in New York, pay $3.50 for the republication of five small puffis for Mr. Tilden. This is 70 cents per notice. The Louisville organ is entitled to draw on Mr. Tilden for $14 for yesterday's job. There's nothing like a six million candidate in a centennial year.

From the Enquirer, May 31. If the Democratic party should establish a precedent by rewarding such a "reformer" as Tilden with a Presidential nomination, the nation would be disgraced and the party name would be stained like the hand of Lady Macbeth.
